– MAXIMUS TO EXPLORE STRATEGIC ALTERNATIVES FOR ENHANCING SHAREHOLDER VALUE –

(RESTON, Va.– July 23, 2007)– MAXIMUS (NYSE:MMS), a leading provider of government services, announced today that it has retained UBS Investment Bank as financial advisor to assist the Board of Directors in exploring strategic alternatives to enhance shareholder value, including a possible sale of the Company. In consultation with its advisor, the Company expects to review a range of options to best position the Company to capitalize on growth opportunities in the government market. The Company does not expect to disclose further developments regarding the process until the review of strategic alternatives has been completed, and there can be no assurances about the outcome of this process.

CEO Richard Montoni, commented, “Over the past year, we have worked to focus our business on its core strengths, improve profitability, and address legacy issues which has resulted in a stronger organization with a clear strategic direction. Our pursuit of strategic alternatives is just another step towards realizing the full potential of the Company.”

Peter Pond, Chairman of the MAXIMUS Board, stated, “Our priority now is to best position MAXIMUS to continue its mission of serving the government market and to provide a platform for accelerated growth going forward. We believe this process will benefit our clients and employees as well as our shareholders.”

“Since its founding over 30 years ago, MAXIMUS has established a leading brand and unrivaled capability within the government health and human services market by providing cost-effective solutions that best satisfy client needs. The Company’s success is based on its two greatest assets – its dedicated employees who lead the market in subject matter expertise and the hundreds of long-term client relationships we have established over the years,” Mr. Pond concluded.
